

General Information

Parking in campus lots requires a current University permit. Metered and visitor pay parking are also available. Generally, parking areas (permit and metered) are enforced 7:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., M-F unless otherwise posted. It is the responsibility of those parking on campus to park in a legal parking space. Please observe all parking signage. Vehicles parking in violation or in an unauthorized area will be subject to a citation and/or tow at the owner's expense.

Visitors may pay to park in the metered areas, and Tyndall Ave., Main Gate, Park Ave., Highland, Second Street, Sixth Street, and Cherry Ave. Garages.

Contractors and Service Vendors may pay to park in Cherry Ave. Tyndall Ave., Main Gate, Park Ave., Highland, Sixth Street and Second Street Garages. If frequent trips are anticipated, Parking and Transportation Services should be contacted for purchase of an annual Vendor Service Permit. Daily and monthly permits are also available. Loading zones are available adjacent to most buildings for short-term use (20 minutes unless otherwise posted).

Residential Permit Areas are located on the streets to the North, South, East and West of the University. Parking is by City of Tucson permit only and is strictly enforced by the City of Tucson. More information at 791-5071

Special Event Parking: PTS has the right to reserve campus parking lots, as well as restrict access onto/through University streets during special events. Call 621-3300 for help with parking for your special event.

The University of Arizona encourages and supports alternative transportation by providing bicycle parking at all buildings, bus pass subsidies, and carpool matching lists. For more information please call 626-RIDE.

If you have questions regarding parking at The University of Arizona, please contact Parking and Transportation Services.
